

JOHN DAVID OQUILA

Email: oquiladave@gmail.com
LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/jdoquila
Location: Sto. Tomas, Batangas

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Entry-level professional with strong adaptability and a continuous learning mindset in computer-based environments, eager to develop technical and practical skills through hands-on experience and real-world application. Brings a solid foundation in digital tools, visual communication, and structured workflows, with the ability to quickly learn and apply new technologies as needed. Focused on producing efficient, clear, and high-quality output while steadily building expertise in UI/UX, IT, and other related technical fields through collaboration and experience.

CORE SKILLS

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Strong understanding of computer networks, including TCP/IP, DNS, DHCP, routing, and switching fundamentals, with a focus on secure and efficient network communication• Knowledge of cybersecurity principles such as threat detection, risk assessment, vulnerability management, and basic incident response practices• Familiar with security tools and technologies such as firewalls, antivirus systems, VPNs, and intrusion detection/prevention systems (IDS/IPS)• Understanding of system hardening, access control, authentication methods, and secure configuration of network devices and endpoints• Knowledge of basic scripting and command-line tools for network | <ul style="list-style-type: none">troubleshooting, monitoring, and automation tasks• Strong analytical thinking with attention to detail in identifying vulnerabilities, network issues, and potential security risks• Experience working with or learning about cybersecurity frameworks and best practices for maintaining secure systems and data protection• Fast learner with adaptability in fast-paced IT environments and a willingness to continuously improve networking and cybersecurity skills• Collaborative mindset with openness to feedback, problem-solving, and teamwork in IT support, network operations, and security-focused projects |
|--|--|

WORK EXPERIENCE

- | | |
|---|--------------------|
| SomethinBig Design Studio
Graphic Artist | 2024 - 2026 |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Designed visual assets, posters, and digital materials while supporting clear and structured communication of technical and system-related information• Assisted in creating simplified visual guides and content that help improve understanding of IT, networking, and security-related concepts for users and teams• Applied design principles and visual hierarchy to present information clearly, supporting better readability and awareness in technical documentation and materials• Collaborated with team members and clients to translate requirements into organized and visually effective outputs aligned with project goals | |

- Contributed to layout design and visual structuring of materials that support system workflows, processes, and user guidance
- Adapted quickly to feedback and evolving technical requirements while developing familiarity with networking and cybersecurity concepts and best practices

MESA RESTAURANT – MESA

2018– 2021

Freelance Graphic Artist

- Designed promotional posters and visual assets for marketing campaigns
- Supported front-desk operations and assisted with social media content
- Developed foundational skills in video editing and motion graphics while creating small promotional clips

EDUCATION

Batangas State University Jose P. Laurel Polytechnic College – Malvar

2020-2024

Bachelor of Information Technology

LANGUAGE

English: Conversational / Professional Working Proficiency

Filipino: Fluent